

with the Peter Content measures

Please excuse my apparent petulance
in this matter; but you will easily understand how I am
I have the Loggia section this two weeks & pieces, just at the time when I am struggling to get into shape for publication collections of papers for all of them
With all good wishes
Yours truly
M. Dawson

myself I am full of
My dear Sir,
Having got through the bulk of my accumulations, I send you a more precise statement of my objections to your paper.
I trust you will admit that you were (and are) in attributing to me the assertion that I am shaking the faith of our measures, and I am quite sure that if you could examine with me
the sections at the Loggia and Peter, you would
