My dear Sir,

I now beg leave to enclose a testimonial from the Honble C. D. Dyer, Chancellor of this University, that where no man in this country has had better opportunities of receiving my work here.

I learn from the Newspapers that the Senators ~~will~~ were to meet on the 17th to fix the day of the election, and I trust I have by an early mail intimation of the day passed, and perhaps also

I leave him as to whether it will be desirable for me to take any further steps either in procuring testimonials or otherwise.

I trust that the letter which I addressed to you, as well as others from friends in Britain, may have reached you before the meeting on the 3rd.

Sincerely yours
W. Dawson
