

Monday A. M.

My Dear Sir

I am perfectly ashamed to ask you for more books but I find it necessary in order to use those which I have. Kindly lend me vol. 1 of Robt. Brown's Misc. Works (Ray Society) and vol 1 of Hooker's British Flora if there is a copy in the library of an earlier date than the 3rd ed. 1842. I should also like to get vol 1 of Sowerby's Mineral Conchology - a book I once gave to the library.

I have of yours

R. Br. & works vol 1 and Hook. & Genera Filicum

and from the College Library Smith's English Flora vol. IV.

Truly Yours

David A. P. W. M.

Tuesday P. M.

My Dear Sir

What am I to do with that Botanical Volume you sent to me? Its length is out of all proportion to its subject and the author's knowledge of plant distribution is very local — local too in a matter which of all others calls for general information!

Please give me the author's name and tell me whether the circumstances would which you devised it make its publication desirable.

Very truly yours
David A. P. Wats.
