Aug 21/69

My dear sir,

Owing to the
arrangement of the Steamers I cannot leave this place till Sunday evening the 21st without shortening my time here too much
to write you in complete the first part of my new Synopsis of my lectures on Fertility and some Medging in the

since both of which are of importance to my interests which I shall however be in Montreal early
on the morning of the 31st (Tuesday week)
and shall then (if
at all in accordance with your other arrangements) hope to see you.

I have thought
much since I ~~was~~<sup>wish to</sup>

You of the National School matter and can see no remarkable course open to me but to resign, and to take up the position in reference to school matters of a mere watchman from one side, in which capacity I may perhaps do more good than in any other. Whatever the intention of the Government the affair
seems to me an

that I should separate myself altogether from the Queen's part and the Educational Department and put no more
under it

I am glad it is a
success & leave our institutions with what I have had to say and my few comments but
that must come some time in my case
and I hope it may be the entire joy of the institutions which
