After writing this, I thought I would not trouble you till I heard from W^m Guest I send you his letter — Either you or I can now take him to Halsey Street — direct
My dear Sir
D. J. B.

On receipt ^{the 7th inst} this morning of your authorizing letter I have proposed to W^m Guest to receive Mr Dawson — referring her to Mr Etheridge her old friend —

An answer I will let you know — I think that under Etheridge's gentle management, (or without it) the young man will be safe and comfortable —

so that when weary - or in bad weather

Mr George may have help

I am my dear Sir

faithfully yours

When Mrs Guest has accepted George you might forward my last letter (to you) to Principal Dawson - to save you the trouble —
