

Priv:

Luebec, 24 Dec. '73.

My dear Principal, Yours of the 20th reaches me to-day. I keep your Memo: sent Howe; which pleases me entirely. He writes me privately, in a sense (as I think) satisfactory.

I hope, as you will have heard or will hear from our friend Ferris, to spend one, two or three days in Monroeville next week, en route for Oranowa. And then, I trust we may all three confer with our friend the Judge. Before leaving, I will try to have seen Grant, in re Normal School.

In haste,

Yours most truly,
Wright Lankin.

Dear Sir
