

Bank of Montreal.

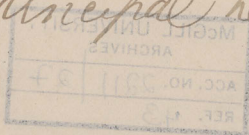

Montreal, Nov 4 1870

My dear Sir:

Your son being a "minor" cannot transact business with the Bank in his own name. It will therefore be necessary for you to appoint an attorney to act for you during your absence. If you will execute the enclosed I shall be happy to sign the receipts for you when your son requires money.

Yours very truly
Henry Kennor

Your kind letter of the 19th has been received and the Board of the same name is now engaged in necessary steps to appoint an attorney not for you during your absence if you will execute the enclosed I shall be happy to sign the receipt for you when you next return home.

Yours truly
Henry W. Brown
