

THE ROYAL SOCIETY,

BURLINGTON HOUSE, LONDON. W.

Apr. 20.th 70

Dear Sir

I am glad to inform you that the Council has appointed your paper to be read as the Bakerian Lecture at the meeting of the Society on the 5th of May.

May I hope that it will be convenient to you to dine with the Royal

Principal Deacons

Society Club at Walter's Rooms on that evening as my guest; we will adjoin from thence to the Society at 8 1/2.

We dine very precisely at 6 o'clock, and I will beg you to be there 3 or 4 minutes before six, if not too inconvenient.

Sincerely yours

Edward Sabine
