My dear Sir

I was glad to learn by your note that you had arrived in London - I called upon you on Saturday but had not the pleasure of finding you at home - I should like much to see you to thank you for your kind offices in favour of my son - If your time is not fully taken up could you come and take a quiet Tea with us on Friday at 7 o'clock - We keep up our old Cape Breton custom of dining at 2 P.M. and it would break up your day to ask you at that time - If you are engaged for that evening perhaps you can say when we may look for you - Neither Mrs. Dixon nor myself are able to go out at night and are almost always at home - My son from Sydney is here - also his wife - a Pictou lady, who

I dare say you knew there.
They return to Nova Scotia in May - I have never met your son at Jersey Street - pray bring him with you -

Ever very truly yours
Rich<sup>d</sup> Drowdy

An answer will oblige -
