My dear Sir

The time you name will suit me very well provided you can remain over the Sunday, otherwise it will leave us no time. I suppose the fact that I and my family are Wesleyan Methodists will not frighten you from spending a Sabbath with us - since we are not so ultra-puritanical as our Scotch friends.

A Train leaves Euston Station at 9 reaching in which I live & mine is the first red house on the right hand as you come about 100 yards down the road.

I would meet you at the station but it will be my lecture hour at the College - You can easily return to London if necessary, on Monday morning. Pray let me hear that you have made your Manchester at 2 - and another at ten reaching Manchester at 3. Either of these would enable you to join us at a five-o'clock dinner.

I live about 3 miles from the station but you could either take a Cab at the station or catch one of the Didbury Omnibuses at the Exchange which is close at hand - & which will put you down at the end of Egerton Road, Fallowfield

arrangements in accordance with my little scheme -

If you come enriched by the confabulation with Carruthers, we shall surely be able to come to some common conclusion.

I am My Dear Sir

Ever sincerely yours

W. C. Williamson

I would get our Principal to dine with us on the Sunday, & meet you.
