My dear Sir

Many thanks for

returning Mr. Beadell's paper. I have since shown it to D. Dineen, hinting at the same that you had some little hesitation
about joining your name to it in any way, & he agreed with me, that,
although it is no very great affair, it may

myself to read. - I will in all probability be printed up in abstract, you do not under
yourself in any way responsible by simply communicating the paper to the Society. -

Believe me

Yours very truly

W. T. Dallas.
