

My dear Dawson

Mr Vincent the Librarian of the Royal Institution (alderman St) has asked me to mention to you his wish (or petition) to have your lecture of the 27th Instant, as soon as you can - even before its delivery if possible - that he may make an early and good abstract of it for the newspapers (especially the London Illustrated) -

Your Bakerian Lecture would suffice -

Mr Vincent does this kind of work exceedingly exceedingly well - and in himself a good christian man -

I congratulate you in the gratifying reception you have met with here
- and on the privileges God is throwing into the way of Mrs Dawson for her present enjoyment and future usefulness

I have not strength for both the Club Dinner and the Evening meeting - and so chose the latter -

With every kind wish for Mrs and Mr Dawson

I am my dear Dawson

Yours sincerely

J. J. Bigsby
