Leesfield Water May 1890

Tuesday May 24th

My dear Sir,

It unfortunately happens that this day
I am constantly engaged.

Your train is I suppose the 11<sup>h</sup> 20<sup>m</sup> G.E.R. which used to be 11<sup>h</sup> but was changed about 2 months ago. This arrives at 1<sup>h</sup> 20<sup>m</sup>.

I have a lecture from 12<sup>h</sup>45 to 1<sup>h</sup>45 and a very important College Meeting at 2<sup>h</sup> which will last I suppose till dinner time.

Could you dine with us in the Hall of Remembrance College at half past four or later
if four past does

But particularly want you to dine with him?

You want meet all our Fellows who are coming up (those who are not already in residence) to attend the Meeting. We could arrange them about next morning up to the time when I have to get ready for my lecture.

M. S. Professor Miller will be happy to show you our Museum &c. He will be found at the New Museum, which is not far from Trinity St. He dines out at  $4\frac{1}{2}$  and will want to be home in time to dress
