

Sir,
Being the owner of a property, which I have never seen, at Gatham, about halfway between Montreal and Ottawa, I am desirous of learning what are the best sources of information upon the physical characteristics and economic capacities of that region; and having formed one of the listeners to your discourse of last evening, wherein you unfolded in so lucid an order the stores of a full mind upon the sister provinces of Acadia, I am emboldened to make the enquiry of you, conceiving that, from your complete mastery of the matter, you can convey the information without any difficulty.

I should have made the enquiry verbally last evening, had I not observed that your attention was then engaged by others.

I am, Sir,

yours very respectfully,

Pea Hill, Surrey;
