Dear Principal,

I will take care that your extract is sent to the persons most able to give services - therefore to their important subject.

I feel my knowledge to be very slender in this direction, (I do) have not form any conclusions.

But all my paper papers and notes are with you view of the matter.

I shall push it this week time do my utmost to get some scientific evidence, and several characters estimated as they should be by our Authorities. It is most agreeable to me that you should speak as kindly as you do. This year we have done nothing to say to do with the matter. The degree with with the Charitable & the list is completed.

At this time the duty

like with our Council.

I am happy to say that body now exercise extreme care in the election - and it is rather a dangerous matter to suggest names to them. Shall you be in England next summer?

I cannot tell you how my short intercourse with you interested me. Alas! that was so long. I am Prof. Wobland
