My dear son,

Since I wrote to you I have found it necessary to delay my departure until the steamer of July 14th (fourteenth). I shall still plan to go by way of Ireland, and to be in Liverpool on my way to Belfast on Monday
the 11th July.

Will you oblige

by taking my baggage (one chest) in the steamer of the fourteenth, and I shall remit the amount either to you
or the Adams in mediated or having from you. Please explain ^(if necessary) that I shall put my baggage on board

at Liverpool and meet the steamer
myself at Jersey.
