

THE ROYAL SOCIETY,

BURLINGTON HOUSE, LONDON. W.

July 8 - 1870

Dear Sir

Your letter and supplement to your paper have come safely to hand.

The supplement will be duly laid before the Committee of Papers. They have not yet come to a decision on your paper.

consequently should any occasion arise for communication with you, it shall be addressed to Montreal.

At the last meeting of our Council the Natural History Society of Montreal was placed on our list of Institutions entitled to receive our Proceedings.

A parcel containing our first gift to the Society has been sent to Sampson Low to be forwarded

Wishing you a prosperous voyage

I remain

Yours faithfully
