

50, Lombard Street,
London, E.C.

21 October 1874.

My dear Sir,

Christian Work.

Our Committee had better address the Editor of the Publisher. The former particular was the Editor but I think there has been a change. I know of no better vehicle than Christian Work for the communication referred to.

Dr. Macaulay is expected in town on Monday next after his long absence & he will then doubtless be glad to welcome your staff. The field of our Science has been of late unusually tranquil. When the beginning of the job begins I will announce to you if there is any considerable disturbance of the quiet.

Will you when at leisure refer me to my writings on the Upper Devonians of N. America - likely to be found in an library at Somerset House.

Yours faithfully

M. Patton
