

BARTHOLOMEW LANE. E.C.

Nov. 18th 1840.

My dear Dr Dawson

I have been asked by Sir Roderick Murchison to give some introduction to the bearer of this, a particular friend of his - Mr R. H.
Lloyd who is going to Canada in order to push his fortune Both Sir Roderick & myself have told him of the difficulties which lie in the way of gentlemen of education getting immediate employment, there, but he finds everything so overstocked here that he is determined to try what he can do. He leaves with a determination to take to anything that will give him an honest living and which may offer a fair chance of promotion. He will explain his own views and if it is in your power to give him any advice, or assistance you will confer a favour on me Apologizing for troubling you I am.

Yours very sincerely,

Deul Wee
