

The Royal Society,
Burlington House, London. W.

21st April 1871

My dear Sir,

The Worst contained in your letter of the 6th inst^o was communicated to the Council at their meeting held yesterday, and they at once agreed to lend you the drawings, to be ultimately returned as you proposed. It is against been looked to and papers which are ordered to be passed in the Archives, but the Council have ordered a copy to be taken at the Society's expense, and to be sent to you. It will be put in hands forth with papers to some time the first mention may be sent before the whole is Complete.

Yours Dear Sir

Yours Sincerely
