

Auburn N.Y.

July 29/72

My Dear Sir:

I have your very kind favor of the 24th and its contents are duly noted. I do not particularly desire to
add any collection
any more plaster casts
than those I now have.

If you could send me
one original pipe I would gladly send you
quite a little assortment of Yorkshire specimens.

Even one form of your Canadian stone instruments would be very acceptable. If you should ever get any thing in duplicate will you not allow me

to exchange with you?

Thanking you for your kind attention to my troublesome requests

I am, Sir,

Yours sincerely
Wm. Parker.
