Dear Sir

I write for the purpose of calling your attention to the Quebec Temperance League.

The Executive Committee are anxious during the meetings of the present week to place the Society upon as firm a basis as possible, and bring about a revival of the interest in the ~~the~~ temperance cause.

The League was organized to unite the power and influence of all Temperance Societies in the province, as well as of individuals favourable to Temperance in one effort to advance the cause especially with a view to legislative action.

In order to do this we realize the necessity of obtaining the names of leading gentlemen throughout the province.

I am aware that you have formerly taken

An interest in the Temperance Cause and have therefore great pleasure in inviting you to allow me to Enrol your name as a member of the League

I know your time is already occupied and we can hardly expect more than the influence of your name

Our Second Annual Meeting is Announced in the Enclosed circular

I am
Yours truly

Thomas Gales
