

1027 St. Asaph Street
28 Feb. 1872.

My dear Sir,

Arrangements have been made under the auspices of the Presbytery for a united Miss. Meeting to be held in our Church this eighth week (Wed. 6th). The convening of the Com. (Mr. Young) has requested me to ask you to speak. Dr. Taylor will preside. Mr. Loring will speak on Home Missions, and Dr. Brown on French work.

It was arranged that Mr McLaren ^{of Ottawa} should say something about Foreign Missions, and I was deputed to ask you to speak on the religious movements now in progress on the Continent of Europe. Some doubt has arisen since, however, as to whether Mr McLaren can be with us, which ~~is~~ may render it necessary either to get another to take this subject or to ask you to take it. Perhaps it will be time enough to make final arrangements when we meet

Would you be kind enough ~~to say something about~~ on Sabbath afternoon. Meantime I hope your engagements are such that you can manage to spare the evening.
Hoping that you have now quite recovered from your recent accident,

I am

Yours sincerely
Subsidiary
