

Montreal, April 16th 1872.

My dear Sir
Mr Casey is in all respects a deserving young man - He reads Latin with ease, but is not so well acquainted with Greek & Mathematics. I think that I have secured a place for him as Tutor in Mr. H. Lyman's family - If you know of any person requiring such services please inform me that I may try to get him under work.

He prefers earning money to accepting any from the College; but feels that he has few friends in Montreal since he renounced the Jesuit faith.

Yours very truly,

S. H. Mackenzie
