

BARTHOLOMEW LANE. E.C.

2 May 1872

My dear Dr. Dawson,

I am much obliged for your note of the 8th ult.
I have sent an extract from it to the Under-Secretary for the Colonies and asked his attention to the circumstances.
I have very little doubt it will be forced on their consideration in ^{Parliament} ~~Parliament~~.
Mr Logan is certainly a public spirited and generous man. After all, these bachelors with no claims upon them, have their uses, and certainly Logan has used his substance in the most creditable way.

I hope Lady Rose will be with you by this time.
She had a great longing to see her old friends, and I consented to her absence with a good deal of reluctance.

With kind regards to

Mr. Dawson

Believe me to be

Yours Very sincerely
