Dear Mr. Dawson,

Mr. Adam Brown & Mr. Kenneth Cochrane, whose family names Mr. Dawson will well recollect, are starting for a tour in Canada. They hope to be in Montreal, and I have much pleasure in giving them this note to you, because I am sure you will be glad to put them in the way of deriving a favourable impression of a country and city greatly regarded by all British people. Any kindness you may show to them I shall hold as shown to myself, and as I shall never be in Canada except in my dreams you may certainly revelon on my not exhausting the stock of good offices upon which you pressed me to draw if ever I should travel so far from home. Hoping my two friends may find Mr. Dawson by yourself well, I remain, with kind regards, Yours faithfully Wm. Miller.
