Box 114 31st May 1872

Dear Sir

The Rev. J. M. Milligan
D.D. of Aberdeen and Mr. Lang of Invernesside Edinburgh have been attending the Assembly of the American Presbyterian Church at Detroit as delegates from the Church of Scotland, and as they intend D.D. to stay with Rev. Mr. Lang, your city, may I ask you to be kind enough to call on the former and give him any information regarding the workings of your own, & other colleges in Scotland. D. Milligan is married to a cousin of mine and is Professor of Biblical Criticism in Aberdeen University he purposes with his colleague attending the Synod at Perth from 1st to 3rd Proximo in Aberdeen, where they may probably return to from Kingston I was sent here to act Branch Banks for temporary duty in February; but last week received his teaching to remain here for good. Please remember me very kindly to Mrs Dawson and my wife joins me in kind regards to yourself and Miss Dawson

Yours Very Sincerely
John C. Bell
