June 18/72

My dear Rose,

I have forgotten to return to you the enclosed note from Dr Dawson, which I showed to Lord Kimberley. His righteous indignation against the Commanders who are committing atrocities in the South Sea is well founded, but but is misdirected in so far as he attributes the mal-practices to Ducoudrers, whose reputation of blauders has been singularly free from abuses. It is the traffic to Fiji that has been so disgraceful. We hope that effective steps can & will ~~be~~ now be taken to put things right.

Dear Sir

Robert M. Herbert.
