My dear Sir,

My second
son Mr William B.
Dawson ^{aged 19} is now in the second or middle year of our engineering course
under Prof Armstrong, and I am very desirous to secure
for him some opportunity for field

work (I say on the Industrial R.R. of Pepper) in the next summer.

He is a young man of thorough
good character and
habits, active and reliable, and has a well up in mathematics and a great aptitude for and will here have seen mathematics and has in my service
for the hardware work with Prof. Shuster before Shuster.

If you will kindly keep in view with reference to my ^{sentiments} with ^{to my} ~~of~~ ^{the} whole, be very obeyed, and may add that any ^{may}
I be earned is not
D that as ^{well} as opportunity of ^{as} proper practice.
