Dear Dr. Dana

Immediately on my arrival in London I will send you a cheque for your own professional services.
The amount you have fixed I consider altogether inadequate for his invaluable & conscientious services, & as I reap so will I reward.
At the present moment I have not reaped, but I consider myself bound to pay him this instalment.

With many thanks for your continued kindnesses & many courtesies to Mrs Preston & myself, & with much regret that you should have been exposed to so much
