

D. Adams

8, East Twenty Fourth St., Madison Square,
New York.

Dec. 1. 1874

My Dear Dr. Dawson:

I was happy to receive yr. letter of the 23rd. ult. We have arranged for the Lectures to be delivered in the Hall of the Young Men's Christian Association.

A Black Band service will be at yr. service.

The Hall will be more convenient than a Church. The evening

Wish any of our Dricks - w^o Jethie - to entertain you. I have thought you would be altogether more independent - & free in other quarters; & so, not being in view as our friends, I have desired room for you I am delighted at the Greenway Park House, in Greenway Park, between 21st & 20th St. Car. This will be near to quiet & comfortable. So that I will at once on y^e. arrival (if I have what - from it) w^o be I will meet you at - the Hotel) & the so far as at-present-arranged will be Tuesday (15), Wednesday, Thursday & Saturday. & Tuesday & Wednesday of the week following. The Hall was engaged for other company.

Mr. Adams & myself had hoped for the pleasure of receiving you at our own house: but the illness of a son who is expected to ruin ~~the~~ the country with his family, preoccupies our affairments will prevent.

please be separated about 1 hr. before the proprietor will be ready to receive you.
I take good care of you, & shall hope to call upon you soon after the success.
He can be much pleased with your situation. It is very good to see you in this way. I am sure, my dear Sir, that you will be very much pleased with

Yours
W. Adams