My dear Sir,

I have just received the circular
from Mr Penton,
The request to which he refers is that I should ask the proprietors of the mining properties in Nova Scotia to pay him $10,000

out of the sums they are to receive. This I of course told him
would be quite useless. What unpleasant course he proposes to take I do not know, except that he hinted at some part of legal proceedings.

Yours

W. Dawson

P. Redpath Esq

Pl. send you the
enclosed in case Rent's proceedings
should be of such a character as to damage your interests.
I think Cotte should look after him.
