

Dear Dr. Dawson,

I am sorry I
was unable to acknowledge sooner, your
kind letter present,
but I have been confined to my bed
the last few days.
Pray accept my warmest thanks

for your kind
remembrance of me.
I shall take great pleasure in perusing the work. I would if I dared, compliment
you on the very high terms in which it has been criticized in England.

Allow me to wish

you (even at this late season) the best compliments
of the season, by your self and family.

I am,

Yours sincerely
Rune Robson
