

Wendy 21st March 1856.

My dear Mr Dawson.

I am much obliged for your note & enclosure. I had seen the certificate Copied of the "Register" which is written in a very bad spirit, not unlike that which inspired ^{the} "Churchman" in the Whig. Your letter is very proper, and written in a most conciliatory tone. I had a letter from Judge Day, which I only got this morning. I thought it might possibly have some effect.
Unless we obtain some converts, I fear it would be premature to attempt to consider so soon, especially as it is almost certain that Judge Denkin will be away. However we can talk over the whole matter on Saturday's trappings

Yours truly
Wendy Dawson
