Sir J. William Dawson,
Montreal, Canada.

Dear Sir William:

I spent considerable time today endeavoring to find the exact reference to a statement made by S. Laing that "Sir J. William Dawson and Professor Huxley, who have studied the subject minutely, calculate that the time represented by the coal measures alone would be six millions of years ". Will you not kindly inform me where you discussed this subject yourself or in connection with Professor Huxley ?

Yours sincerely,

Charles D. Walcott,

Dear Sir William:

I spent considerable time today endeavoring to find the exact reference to a statement made by S. Leairg that Sir J. William Dawson and Professor Huxley, who have studied the subject minutely, calculate that the time represented by the coal measures alone would be six millions of years. Will you not kindly inform me where you discussed this subject or in connection with Professor Huxley?

Yours sincerely,
