Dear Sir,

As you will see from the accompanying prospectus thereof, the book I am at present engaged in compiling is an attempt to draw a distinction between good arms and those entitled to bear them, and the bogus and unauthoritative achievements so very frequently made use of. - Might I therefore ask your kind assistance, to this end, in filling up and returning to me by an early post the accompanying information form? -

1893
A subscription to the book is by no means essential to the publication of the information alone, but if you care to further assist me by subscribing for either edition, my Publishers would be very willing to insert an engraving of your arms with all quarterings impalements augmentations and decorations, - at least of such part of them as are duly recorded or can be officially certified. -

With apologies for troubling you,

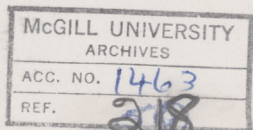

I am

Yours faithfully,

A. W. Davis
