

Lorne

Oct. 15. 1893

My dear Mr. Williams.

Since my return from the Continent, I have been suspicious of gift of a last scientific volume, I now take it with me to Aberdeen where I am to meet my father who will also delight in reading it. You have

With a charming compliment to your friend in dedicating the various papers to them, as to their memory.

I feel for you much in the giving up of the act in superintendence of the fill - his Donald Smith tells me that he has secured a very good site on Parkville Street for the Ladies' College which will add greatly to the imposing group of buildings -

Indubitable Reception in Montreal seems to have been most successful, & I think that what we regard here as his delusions in regard to Irish matters, will help him there -

Believe me
Yours very truly
D. O'Connell
