Dear Mr Reade,

I have reason to believe that in writing to thank you for the very kind notice of my new book in the Gazette of Thursday last, I am addressing the author of the article I am indebted to you for the very kind notice of my new book in the Gazette of Thursday
last. I am assured you that it was a source of great pleasure

I want to see and all the more that it comes from me when I see that is in the way ~~great~~ rather than in that of green
 but who can nevertheless appeal
 the facts and speculate of his subjective comparison
 and make allowance for differences which I know are great
 in literary work

Should I wish to do any work
The future of our Gospel is rather in the way of short papers on general work than of publications addressed to general readers.

With all kind regards and good wishes Remain your truly
