Montreal, Oct. 31, 1893

Dear Sir William Dawson,

Not withstanding the rule of anonymous journalism which I have always tried to observe, I will not attempt to conceal from you how proud I am to have won your kind acknowledgment.

It would be strange, indeed, if I failed to recognize worth so real and so widely known as yours, and sincere as has always been the faithful estimate of your services & science, letters and education, it is but the faint echo of all intelligent opinion.

I prize your letter very highly.
Hoping that restored health may give you still many years for the studies and researches that you love,

I remain, with sincere esteem, Yours faithfully

Dr J. M. Dawson, C.M.S., M.S. John Deane Montreal.
