

CLASS XXIX.
International Exhibition, 1862.

Prize Medal awarded for Geological Collections.

Exposition Universelle,
Paris, 1867.

GREAT RUSSELL STREET, BLOOMSBURY,

London, W.C.

Bryce Wright

June 10th 1876

Principal J. W. Dawson,
Bryce M. Wright,

Mineralogist, Geologist and Conchologist.

Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your favoured and am much surprised to hear you have not yet received the Boxes.

I have made Enquiries after Mr. Scatcherd again and have been informed that he has gone some time ago to America and took the Boxes with him. You are doubtless in error in Mentioning that in the first place you desired me to send the Boxes to Mess^{rs} Scamper & Co. In your first letter you desired me to send them along with Mr. Whiteaves but subsequently, after they had been forwarded, to Mess^{rs} Scamper Lowry & desirable however I will have great pleasure in sending you them out direct upon receipt of detailed order. As you sent Post order for them at time of procuring. They were not entered in detail in my Book.

Trusting however that you will receive them and thus avoid the double cost. They to remain

Dear Sir,

Most Obediently Yours,

Bryce Wentworth

I have just procured a most wonderful Grotto pan Wentworth Wentworth

4 1/2 in in length. The price is 40¢ I enclose a rough sketch.

