

56. Liverpool Street
Kings Cross W.C.

June. 27th 1876

Dear Sirs.

I must apologise for again writing you, my reason for so doing is that I believe your letter has been written under mis-apprehension and am desirous that when writing Dr. Dawson I shall create no mis-undersstanding.

Dr. Dawson letter says that Copies of "The Story of the Earth & "Archana" are in your hands and "if you will kindly send"

"them this note I have no doubt" "that they will send you copies"
"(Say one of each work) on my" acc"

The question is have you rightly interpreted his letter and have I your permission to say that you decline to comply with his letter?

I shall write to Dr Dawson for Thursdays mail, & if I do not hear from you I shall conclude that your silence is an affirmative answer to the preceding paragraph and complain that you have declined to act upon his letter

I shall also send with my letter. credentials from his friends here who will tell him who and what I am, and when that is done I venture to think that he will not feel pleased.

I have to thank you for your previous courtesy & to remain

Yours truly

Henry R. Taylor.
