

Dear Sir
My dear Sir

Recieve me for address in few lines to you on the other side the paper on which you are enclosed interests as highly early of Civil societies there, In my judgment the present state of the matter invites you attention to it, The In deposit on my column is unusual and the help of the capital have under this more evident than before. The opening could give the best proof possible of the love of the cause and the advantages referred to in spirit are to find that the work is open every corner not only in the world. The present state of the world is such that all and would find out the paper in recent times There myself a great thing is the part of me in of 2500 and who is, and in 2000. I really stand hold it let us see for to offer this - and will find it to you in any other capital let to get any other at any time I hold that you -
