distinctly announcing the appointment. I was therefore puzzled to know what to do with your letter but finally withdrew it doubting

My dear Dr Dawson

I had sent in your letter to the printer when I learned from a personal friend of Mr MacKenzie that Mr Whiteaves had got the whether you would like to have Mr George Dawson's name made prominent in view of certain failures Hoping I have done as you will

Thank you
I remain
Yours respectfully
