Dear Sir

I received safely the volume which you were kind enough to send me. I have read the greater part of it and shall finish it to day. I am very much obliged to you for your present. I have enjoyed the study of it and should enjoy still more the discussion of some parts with you. A traveller has no time or patience to put his thoughts on paper. I think that in England a book called "Supernatural Religion" has done more harm than all the writings of Tyndall Huxley Darwin & Spencer put together. But Lightfoot, who is an excellent divine, has admirably dealt with it. The worst of it is that conceited young men read the Voisac and never take the antidote - I come into contact, as you may suppose, with many men, some honest and some not; but more often of originality, and your book will be of value to me with a certain number of these doubters.

Thank you for your great kindness.

To me when I see in herald and press GOD to perhaps all your good work

Believe me

Yours truly

Francis Atterland
