Dear S. Dawson

Prentice v. McKay.

When you left I found that one of the notes on my desk was from Mr. McKay, whose writing I did not recognize when you you were here. It enclosed notes of P. to Ken, Ken to you, you to McK, & asked me to see Ken & then himself. I did so & having obtained McK's authority to do so, have made a motion, which has been granted, to withdraw the 2nd plea, which brought up the disputed point in which you feel an interest.

The case now stands with only the technical points of defence to P's claim, of which I told you & of which I have some hope, but not confidence.

You will now feel no concern in the case.

Yours faithfully
R. A. Ramsay
