Dear Sir

I am this afternoon sending off in a parcel the letters that we are able to send you written by my late Uncle Sir W. S. Logan.
I am afraid there are few that will be of any use to you but we thought it better

My Nephew

that you should be the judge of that - We should be glad to have them returned to us when you have quite finished with them -

Believe me dear Sir

Yours very faithfully

Elizth G. Stewart
