

able to make so bad
use of what we may conspire to a request for information respecting the college.

Truly yours
J. Dawson

J. W. Chapman

Replied to
Miss M. M. M. M.
and some more
M. M.

March 19/77

My dear Sir,

In answer to your of Saturday I can only say that I am not aware that I know any thing of the Mr. Murray in question, except what he stated in his letter which I
forwarded to you.

He is not, and in so far as I am aware never was, a Professor
or Teacher in the College.
Dr J. C. Murray is one of our professors, and the George Murray is a teacher in the High School formerly connected with the College, and he may have represented himself as being one of these

Gentleman, and so
have misled Dr Morrison.
The tenor of his letter to me and his addressing me by a wrong title, and in his forged letter speaking of me as "treasurer", a term we do not use give further evidence that he has had no connection with McGill.

I fear he is altogether
an impostor, and only regret that he has been