My dear Principal,

I have been thinking over the subject of the Ladies' Educational Course since you spoke to me about it this morning; and I have decided not to undertake any work in connection with it ~~this~~ next session. Of late I have been employing my leisure on some literary work, which could occupy a good deal more time if I had it at my disposal; and I do not think it advisable to interrupt this without sufficient cause.

Besides, I am continually revising and rewriting my College lectures; and next winter I intend to overhaul entirely my course for the Fourth Year. This will occupy so much more of my time, that I do not think it would be wise to undertake the additional work of a course to the Ladies' Educational Association.

I should hesitate of course about this decision, if I thought it would in any way embarrass your arrangements; but from our conversation this morning I presume there is no likelihood of this.

Yours very truly,

J. Clark Murray
