Tuesday May 1st

Dr Dawson

Dear Sir

Finding myself unable in the short time at my disposal to make any material alterations in my valedictory without destroying the greater portion of that composition I am obliged to abide by the decision of the class to the effect that no valedictory should be read. Requesting then that this portion of the afternoon's programme be omitted and that no mention be made of it, and hoping that the action of the Class will neither give rise to, nor be construed as an expression of, any ill-will;

I remain

Yours very respectfully,
Robt Robertson
