My dear Dr Dawson

You will perhaps be surprised at hearing from one of your old pupils in such a distant country as this but altho' I know you would scarcely be able to recall my face and name to memory yet yours both as that of a kind and willing instructor will always remain green in mine - You and I were frequently together when he was in this country and I used to delight in little chats together for they were both
